On 7/18/69, [redacted] furnished the following information to SA DANIEL E. BRANDT:

b7D

The informant advised he has not seen THOMAS CHIOLINO for three or four years. He knew CHIOLINO to have operated a small bar and restaurant near Minocqua, Wisconsin, and that he was a sports gambler. He knew that CHIOLINO made bets on horses, baseball and football games, but did not believe he was engaged in bookmaking activities. CHIOLINO is of Sicilian nationality, and in the past, whenever he came to Milwaukee, he was accompanied by other tavern keepers from Hurley, Wisconsin, names not known. On these trips to Milwaukee, CHIOLINO made it a point to contact FRANK BALISTRIERI and to visit some of BALISTRIERI's downtown nightclubs.

The informant recalled that CHIOLINO had in the past placed bets with CHARLEY PISCIUNE, a known Milwaukee bookmaker, who died recently. He also placed bets with "The Office," the former bookmaking establishment which had paid off to FRANK BALISTRIERI. Approximately 3-4 years ago, CHARLEY PISCIUNE owed CHIOLINO money on bets, which CHIOLINO had placed with PISCIUNE, and PISCIUNE had failed to pay off. CHIOLINO made this information available to FRANK BALISTRIERI, who in turn settled this matter so that CHIOLINO did receive his money. The informant believed that CHIOLINO was friendly with RALPH CAPONE, but he knew of no business relationship between CAPONE and CHIOLINO.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Period of investigation extensive due to receipt of results of auxiliary office investigation subsequent to dictation of last report.

On 7/18/69, [redacted] furnished the following information to SA DANIEL E. BRANDT:

b7D

The informant advised he has not seen THOMAS CHIOLINO for three or four years. He knew CHIOLINO to have operated a small bar and restaurant near Minocqua, Wisconsin, and that he was a sports gambler. He knew that CHIOLINO made bets on horses, baseball and football games, but did not believe he was engaged in bookmaking activities. CHIOLINO is of Sicilian nationality, and in the past, whenever he came to Milwaukee, he was accompanied by other tavern keepers from Hurley, Wisconsin, names not known. On these trips to Milwaukee, CHIOLINO made it a point to contact FRANK BALISTRERI and to visit some of BALISTRERI's downtown nightclubs.

The informant recalled that CHIOLINO had in the past placed bets with CHARLEY PISCIUNE, a known Milwaukee bookmaker, who died recently. He also placed bets with "The Office," the former bookmaking establishment which had paid off to FRANK BALISTRERI. Approximately 3-4 years ago, CHARLEY PISCIUNE owed CHIOLINO money on bets, which CHIOLINO had placed with PISCIUNE, and PISCIUNE had failed to pay off. CHIOLINO made this information available to FRANK BALISTRERI, who in turn settled this matter so that CHIOLINO did receive his money. The informant believed that CHIOLINO was friendly with RALPH CAPONE, but he knew of no business relationship between CAPONE and CHIOLINO.

The informant advised that he had no accurate up-to-date information regarding the activities of CHIOLINO.

CAUTION SHOULD BE UTILIZED IN HANDLING INFORMATION FROM [redacted] AND IT SHOULD NOT BE UTILIZED IN THE DETAILS OF A REPORT UNLESS PARAPHRASED TO PROTECT THE IDENTITY OF THIS INFORMANT.

Re: my memo 9/8 and 29/69.

A. reflected in my memo of 9/29/69, [redacted] on 9/29/69 said [redacted] left the French Casino, Hurley, Wis. on Saturday 9/27/69 to go allegedly to a football game at Milwaukee, Wis. with THOMAS CHIOLINO(162-291), but not in [redacted] car. [redacted] was expected back on the night of 9/29/69.

Spot checks of the French Casino on 9/29/ and 9/30 reflected the bar was closed and [redacted] car was parked behind the building on night of 9/29. Car was still there early a.m. on 9/30 per [redacted] and [redacted] had not returned. At about 10:00 a.m. [redacted] car was not there. [redacted] said [redacted] does not drive and probably her brother was using car.

On 9/30/69 while writer and SA [redacted] were travelling south on U.S. 51, about five miles south of Hurley, Wis., the writer observed what appeared to be [redacted] car driving north on 51. The writer turned back around and returned to Hurley just in time to observe at 12:07 p.m. [redacted] an unk own white male (or seemed to be [redacted] brother, and a white female in her 20s, black hair full needs 5' 6", 140 lbs, getting out of [redacted] car behind the French Casino. It is presumed that this girl will either work for [redacted] as a prostitute or as a Go Go Girl as P.C.I's wife is talking of getting a Go Go girl. It is also presumed that [redacted] and the girl must have spent the night at THOMAS CHIOLINO's house in Minocqua, Wis. or a nearby motel and that [redacted] and the girl travelled from Milwaukee to Minocqua w t CHIOLINO.

[redacted] on 9/29/69 said [redacted] and prostitute [redacted] (believed to be [redacted]) left the French Casino about a week ago, supposedly for a vacation. [redacted] back in town again. [redacted] on 9/29/69 said [redacted] and [redacted] are back in Hurley and that [redacted] is starting to work at the Club 13 as a prostitute. [redacted] said the Club 13 may now have 4 prostitutes, ie [redacted] and [redacted]

Records of North Central Airlines, Gogebic County Airport, Ironwood, Mich were reviewed on 9/30/69 to determine if same indicated the unknown prostitute left 9/28 via airplane. Only one male left for Milwaukee on the 3:35 p.m. flight. On the 7:25 a.m. flight there were three females who left for Milwaukee, i.e. [redacted] and [redacted] AND [redacted] did not leave a calling number. 932 is a Michigan exchange.

The above is for info of SA [redacted] who has leads to locate and interview the prostitutes formerly at the French Casino. It will be noted that apparently [redacted] and [redacted] are now at the Club 13. The writer has discussed with AUSA

[redacted], Madison, Wis. the advisability of Agents entering the Club 13 or French Casino to interview the prostitutes at this time in view of the pending trials in 166-87 and 166-114. He said inasmuch as subjects are under indictment and have attorneys, that no contact should be made with them. Accordingly inquiries cannot be made at the Club 13 and French Casino at this time. [redacted] has made remarks which indicates to him that [redacted] had the spread as he has remarked "[redacted] said, it is set up this way".

b7C

b6
b7C

PCI said CHICLINO continues to associate with [redacted], who operates a service station in Minocqua. CHICLINO and [redacted] have gone together to football games at Green Bay and Milwaukee.

PCI, [redacted] stated on Sunday, January 4, 1970, [redacted] made the remark, "We bet on the wrong fix." Apparently referring to other pro football games of that day. [redacted] appeared highly disturbed. From all indications, [redacted] and CHICLINO are still betting, and presumably with [redacted] however, he has no factual data to substantiate that presumption.

close friend of [redacted] and [redacted] a few years ago when living in Minocqua, would go to Hurley, Wisconsin about once a week for gambling purposes, along with TOMMY CHIOLINO and [redacted]. [redacted] now has a tavern in Racine. (It is to be noted that Milwaukee files reflect [redacted] in connection with a case concerning CHIOLINO and was interviewed in August, 1966 at Racine, Wisconsin, at which time, he was operating the Old Mill Tavern. He admitted being a close friend of CHIOLINO and a friend of [redacted] and [redacted].)

b7C

[redacted] was contacted by SA DANIEL C. BRANDT on December 24, 1969 and January 15, 1970 with reference to the subject, and this informant advised he has had no recent information concerning any activity of the subject. Informant stated to his knowledge, CHIOLINO in the past had been a known gambler, who placed bets with the now deceased CHARLIE PISCINI. Informant had no information that CHIOLINO had been in Milwaukee within the past six months and indicated he would advise the writer should he receive information of CHIOLINO's presence in Milwaukee in the future.

b7D

On December 11, 1969, [redacted] advised that [redacted] from Minocqua, Wisconsin, was in Hurley, Wisconsin with his wife recently and attempted to locate [redacted]. [redacted] said he wanted to take out [redacted] and his wife for dinner. CI remarked that [redacted] and [redacted] are friends.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] on January 7, 1970, advised that TOMMY CHIOLINO hasn't been in Hurley recently, apparently because he has a new snowmobile and is involved in snowmobiling.

b7D

On January 29, 1970 [redacted] said CHIOLINO had not been in Hurley recently, but he understood that [redacted] subject of case entitled, [redacted], also ET AL, ITAB - PROSTITUTION, Milwaukee file 166-263) goes to

SUBJECT: THOMAS JAMES CHIOLINO, aka ITAR - GAMBLING
OO: Milwaukee

Re your letter 3/25/71.

Since your investigation fails to disclose that subject is involved in interstate gambling, you should consider directing your investigation to determine whether subject might be in violation of the Illegal Gambling Business Statute which does not require an interstate angle. In any event, reports on investigations conducted with respect to substantive violations must be submitted to the Bureau in accordance with current Bureau reporting rules rather than on a semi-annual basis as suggested in referenced letter.

In the event your investigation fails to develop evidence of violations of the anti-gambling statutes and you desire to investigate subject principally for intelligence purposes, you should consider closing the ITAR case and opening an Anti Racketeering case.

although informants indicated he is still suspected of taking bets, but this may only be from friends and associates and is accordingly on a small scale. Inasmuch as the subject is associated with [redacted] in the operation of the French Casino, Hurley, Wisconsin, (Bufile 166-5441) a known house of prostitution, investigation of subject will continue in further effort to determine if subject is engaged in violations of federal laws. Subject is suspected of having contacts in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, through which prostitutes are hired for the operation of the French Casino and the Club 13, Hurley, Wisconsin, which clubs are being investigated under bufile 166-5441, MI 166-384. Accordingly, continuing checks of toll calls of subject is warranted.

INFORMANTS

[redacted] on indicated dates advised as follows:

b7D

December 15, 1970

CI said CHIOLINO, [redacted] and [redacted] reportedly are betting on football games, but he does not know if among themselves or with others. He said he still suspects that CHIOLINO gets his information regarding games, etc., out of Minneapolis, source unknown.

b6
b7C

He does not know of any reason why CHIOLINO would be in contact with metels in and out of the state.

January 29, 1971

CI said there are indications that TOMMY CHIOLINO is taking bets and that [redacted] as well as [redacted] are betting with CHIOLINO. Both CHIOLINO and [redacted] spend time at Rallo's Barber Shop in Minocqua, Wisconsin, and [redacted] in turn is seen occasionally on Friday nights at CHIOLINO's place of business, Mamma Bella Vista Bar & Restaurant, Minocqua.

b7C

CHIOLINO continues to be active in snowmobiling and past Sunday, there was a party at the Bella Vista, following the snowmobile championship races in Eagle River.

MI 166-291

April 14, 1971

CI stated he had not learned of any pertinent information concerning CHIOLINO, but has observed CHIOLINO and [redacted] together off and on. [redacted] Curley's Bar in Minocqua, Wisconsin. CI has previously advised concerning football pools at Curley's. Milwaukee files contain other references to this establishment.

b7C

CI said he was recently in the basement of the bar (Curley's) and observed two fine wires running from near the sink behind the bar near the restaurant portion of Curley's Bar to the vicinity of a cooler in the basement. Due to the lights being out, he was not able to trace the wires or to determine what they represent. He stated on his next inspection of the basement at Curley's he will make further effort to determine if the wires are in any way connections to illegal gambling activity.

[redacted] furnished the following information on indicated dates:

b7D

December 15, 1970

b6
b7C

January 14, 1971

CI said [redacted] his wife [redacted] and [redacted] and wife left Hurley, on 1/13/71, for a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. TOMMIE CHIOLINO was supposed to have gone on the trip, but did not claiming he had been hurt in the snowmobile races he recently attended.

b6
b7C

CI said CHIOLINO has spent quite a bit of time in Hurley, recently at the French Casino and he reportedly is getting a piece of the action at the French Casino. CI again mentioned that sometime in the past, [redacted] had indicated to [redacted] that CHIOLINO should be done away with and that [redacted] had subsequently told CHIOLINO of it. Now [redacted] and [redacted] are very close and this may be cause for friction between [redacted] and CHIOLINO.

MI 166-291

b6
b7C

Last time CHIOLINO was in Hurley he had numerous arguments with [redacted] but the exact nature was unknown. At that time an MC who claimed to be [redacted] of JO DI MAGGIO. [redacted] was working at the Club Carnival, operated by [redacted] and had with him two young dancers, one allegedly his wife. [redacted] was attempting to set up a date for CHIOLINO with one of the two, but this did not materialize, although they were all together. The MC and the two dancers have since left the Club Carnival.

b6
b7C

February 18, 1971

CI stated [redacted] of the French Casino, returned to Hurley from his trip to Las Vegas, Nevada. [redacted] said he won $15,000 on a crap table, however, blew it all back at Ceasar's Palace. He then borrowed $2,000 each from [redacted] and TOMMY CHIOLINO as well as some money from [redacted] and lost it all. He does not know how he obtained the money from CHIOLINO as CHIOLINO was not reportedly in Las Vegas.

b7C

[redacted] wife [redacted] was in California at the time and upon her return to Vegas, [redacted] and wife were reportedly fueding as [redacted] was broke. [redacted] then allegedly won $200 on a slot machine jackpot, then proceeded to win $3,000 at a crap table, repaid [redacted] and then lost the balance of the money in another place.

b6
b7C

[redacted] and the [redacted] returned to Hurley, however, [redacted] wife [redacted] is visiting her son in California.

b6
b7C

Since [redacted] return to Hurley, he has been unhappy with the operations in Hurley, and has confided about same in a friend. He is reported to have said that [redacted] is in real solid in Newport, Kentucky, where he operates the Club Galazie and, if the election goes right, he will still be in a better position. There is reportedly one house of prostitution in Newport which has 20 women but same is not run by [redacted]. [redacted] has indicated to [redacted] that he would let him set up a house of prostitution in Newport.

b7C

b7C

b6
b7C

[redacted] further claimed that there was going to be a meeting on a subsequent day with TOMMY CHIOLINO coming up to attend it and that he, [redacted] was going to lock up the Club 13.

b6
b7C

Another think that occurred while [redacted] was away, was one of the girls who worked at the Club 13 as a prostitute, requested wages for the time she had to tend bar claiming she could not turn tricks when she was watching the bar. CI believed this girl was referred to as [redacted] or [redacted].

b6
b7C

[redacted] also said, the place operated at a $185 loss while he was away.

[redacted] is reported to have offered the cook at Connie's Supper Club, [redacted] the job that [redacted] has running the Club 13. [redacted] apparently offered him the same amount [redacted] was getting; $200 a week plus commission which would total, wages and commission, about $1200 per month. CI heard that [redacted] is considering the offer but has not made any final decision.

b6
b7C

MI 166-291

April 14, 1971

CI stated on Sunday, April 11, 1971, [] and wife [] were observed at Connie's Supper Club, Hurley, where two young women, believed to be prostitutes at the French Casino, but who were described as "their nieces". Both were young; one was blond and slim and said she was from Milwaukee, the other had chestnut hair and was heavier. The young blond made a call to Milwaukee from Connie's Supper Club.

b6
b7C

During the preceding week, [] was angry stating that his girls did not show up on the bus. CI does not know when the two girls described above arrived in Hurley.

b6
b7C

In regards to the fire at the Club Carnival, THOMAS CHIOLINO complained that their money went up in smoke when the Club Carnival burned. CI understands that there was a certain amount of cash lost in the fire at the Club Carnival and he presumed by CHIOLINO's remark that money received through the operation of the French Casino and Club 13 resulting from prostitution had been kept at the Club Carnival.

CI said [] is now allegedly paying [] $100.00 per week for handling the bar at the French Casino.

b6
b7C

[] on 1/14/71, stated when TOMMY CHIOLINO is in Hurley, he spends his nights at the French Casino.

b7D

On 3/17/71, CI said that at approximately 10:10 p.m. on Friday, March 12, 1971, he observed [] behind the French Casino assisting two young girls in carrying their luggage from [] car into the French Casino. They each had two suitcases. CI had observed [] earlier in the day, but does not believe he traveled any distance to obtain these girls and that [] possibly picked them up at the time the bus came into Hurley that evening or into Ironwood, Michigan.

b6
b7C

CI had observed TOMMY CHIOLINO (subject of 162-291) having been at the French Casino for three or four days prior to the arrival of these girls.

[] on 1/14/71, said that [] French Casino, had told CI that THOMAS CHIOLINO takes bets and passes them on, however, location was not stated.

OO: COLUMBIA

File number 166-291 was opened upon receipt of a report from the Columbia Division dated 9/30/71. It was RUC'd by letter dated 10/16/69. The case agent is CLIFFORD E. HUHTA. It was further noted that two informant contacts recorded on FD-209's dated 12/5/69 and 1/2/70 had been incorrectly referenced to file 166-291 instead of 162-291.
